Campus House Conduct Agreement

Living Arrangements

You are not only being rented a place to live, but also a place to minister to college students. Living in the campus house provides you with the opportunity to experience living in a Christian community, plus the opportunity to work together to impact the lives of people on and around the F.S.U. campus with the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Do you understand and agree to this? Yes No

Personal property should be maintained and operated in a way that is consistent with the nature and purpose of the house (i.e. no loud/late or inappropriate music). His House Christian Fellowship assumes no liability or responsibility for the personal property of the residents. Residents are advised to purchase renter's insurance if loss of property is not covered under their parents' homeowners' policy. Personal property stored outside the resident's room must be labeled and stored in an approved location. Property left at the campus house after checkout will be disposed of and costs incurred will be deducted from the renters' deposit. Do you agree to this? Yes No

Since the world evaluates our message by the care we take in presenting it, it is important that the house be maintained in an attractive condition. It is the responsibility of each person to complete specific cleaning and cooking responsibilities on time and to the glory of God. Residents are also responsible for stewardship of the campus house including lawn care and snow removal. Do you agree to do your part in making the house an attractive living residence? Yes No

No house pets are allowed at any time. Do you understand and agree to this? Yes No

Residents are required to meet as a group within each house a minimum on one time per week for fellowship, a meal, prayer and devotional time. Residents of all campus houses are also required to meet as a whole unit one time per week for fellowship, a meal, prayer and devotional time. You will be responsible for fulfilling your assigned task for each meeting in a manner that is consistent with Christian character. Do you understand the cooperative cooking arrangements and the importance of eating together as a house? Yes No

House, Rooms, & Furnishing

The Campus Houses are an integral part of the campus ministry. Therefore, the first floor of the houses are public areas, open to all students in our ministry and from the college campus. The second floors are the living quarters for the residents. Do you understand and agree to this arrangement? Yes No

In order to help us exhibit the character quality of responsibility, the furnishings must be kept in reasonable condition. Undue damage is the responsibility of the residents. All maintenance problems should be directed to the Head of House who will in turn let the Campus Minister know. Absolutely no painting or remodeling is to be done without permission of the Campus Minister. Do you agree to this?

Yes No

If a friend will be visiting you or staying in your room at any time, you must notify the Head of House. If a guest will be staying more than two nights, approval must be sought from a staff person. A friend of the opposite sex may NEVER stay over night. Please make arrangements through the Head of House for your guest to stay with the same gender. Do you understand and agree to this?

Yes No

Christian Conduct and Spiritual Life

In order to offer this residence as a Christian housing unit, specific guidelines are set to achieve this goal. Do you understand that your conduct must be consistent with the Christian lifestyle while living here?

Yes No

Since we are Christians and represent Jesus Christ, we need to avoid all appearance of evil. Therefore, use of tobacco in any form, alcoholic drinks, and illegal drugs are to be excluded from the lives of residents. Neither should there be any use of profanity at any time. Guests of the residents are the responsibility of the resident and must be consistent with the witness of the house. Violation of these rules means you will be asked to move out. Do you understand and agree to this?

Yes No

Members of the opposite sex are welcome at the campus houses, however they are not allowed on the second floors, or in residents' bedrooms for any reason, so as to provide privacy, to avoid temptation and the appearance of evil. Reasonable visiting hours will be established by the residents. Do you understand and agree to this?

Yes No

It is expected that the residents will make every effort to be involved in the weekly Wednesday fellowship meetings and Sunday church services, the statewide Fall and Winter Retreats, house activities, house meetings and other activities sponsored by the campus ministry. Currently, fellowship meetings are Wednesday's at 7:00 pm and Sundays at 11:00 am, and house devotions are arranged weekly within each house. Habitually neglecting these functions, or having a negative attitude towards them, will mean you will be asked to move out. Do you understand and agree to this?

Yes No

The Campus Houses are owned and operated by Michigan Christian Campus Ministries, known as His House Christian Fellowship on campus. Their purpose is to provide college students an opportunity for intensive spiritual growth within the context of a Christian community. Are you comfortable with this purpose?

Yes No

I have read the above guidelines and will do my best to reflect Christ in every aspect of my life.
